

The Dade City Heritage & Cultural Museum is hosting a fundraiser in November to continue our efforts to preserve the Spencer-Dayton house, situated at 37701 Meridian Ave (adjacent to Price Park). Hettie Spencer, the first postmistress of Dade City, was the original owner of the home when it was first constructed in the late 19th century in Lake Pasadena. Spencer had the house relocated to its current location in 1904, and in 1972, the Dayton family became the new occupants of the historic home.

Mr. Dayton, a renowned historian and Dade City attorney, lived in the house until his final year, 2025.

We will be hosting the museum's 2026 inaugural Grand Heritage Ball this November, Saturday the 14th, 5:30 p.m - 10 p.m (with early access and VIP ticket purchases available). We hope to partner with our local Dade City business owners and residents to achieve our goal of preserving this house through various fundraisers, including our Grand Heritage Ball. Come and celebrate with us for an evening filled with Regency and Victorian attire, food, drinks, a silent auction, a live quartet, and an immersive experience. Guests will have access to the beautiful gardens of the Dade City Garden Club, and each guest will receive a commemorative keepsake.
